GMC Call For Papers Deadline Is This Friday, March 16

Share Your Ideas, Knowledge & Experience at the 2018 Gas Machinery Conference!

The GMC Planning Committee will accept papers for the conference based on an informative abstract submitted by this Friday, March 16. All abstracts will be evaluated on the information supplied. The review committee will use this information to help select papers, assign time slots and assign technical reviewers.

ABSTRACTS ARE DUE THIS FRIDAY, MARCH 16.

You may submit an abstract for a short course (3 hours); technical paper presentation (45 minutes); or a new technology update (10 minutes). The Planning Committee has final say regarding which category is selected. All papers must be free of unnecessary commercialism.

Contact admin@gmrc.org for questions and learn more at www.gmrc.org.
